WORRIED DEMOCRATS

The democrats are beginning to be worried over the predicament of their party in the senatorial race next year. There is certain to be at least four contenders for the nomination, besides the present incumbent, and no party action is likely to bring about a condition where the opposition to Gore will center on one man. Many men want to be that particular man. And should the unexpected happen no man whose name has yet been connected with this honor can possibly muster the strength to win over the blind man.

These worried democrats have no desire to lose a senator of their faith at this time particularly. They need all they have in congress—and a few more. But Gore has passed the point where he can expect or will receive the support of thousands of democrats—men who will support a republican with their votes rather than to see him returned to the senate.

This being the situation, a republican of state-wide acquaintance, of strong personality and high character, can represent this state in the senate of the United States for the next six years at least. There is plenty of such men in the ranks of the republican party and one of them will be chosen by the republicans of the state in the coming primary. Excepting the election of a republican governor, nothing politically could happen to Oklahoma that would better serve her future welfare.

RAINBOW DIVISION VETERANS

Tulsa, July.—A permanent organization of the veterans of the famous Rainbow division who live in Oklahoma has been formed. With headquarters at Tulsa the Oklahoma chapter of the "Rainbow Division Veterans" is rapidly receiving applications for membership from those who served in the various regiments of the fighting division.

The Oklahoma Ambulance company, which was recruited at Tulsa and which later became Ambulance Company 167 of the 42nd division, is serving as a nucleus about which the organization is being perfected. In all the 26 states which furnished troops for this great unit which was to represent the national guard of the United States on European battlefields and which was counted by war critics as one of the four best divisions similar chapters of the national organization are formed.

It is now the purpose of the state chapters to add to their membership those who were invalided home previous to the formation of the association of those who were transferred to other units through the army replacement system. The nearest relative of any deceased soldier who served with the division is eligible for honorary membership.

Applications for membership in the Oklahoma chapter should be sent to Josiah C. Chatfield, secretary and treasurer, in care of the Tulsa Democrat and Times, Tulsa, Oklahoma.

The Oklahoma chapter will hold its first state convention at Tulsa on September 11 and will receive those living in Oklahoma who served with the division in units other than the Ambulance company.

The democratic Oklahoma is using its influence to subtly poison the minds of the people of this state as to the attitude of Chairman Will H. Hays of the Republican national committee with reference to the league of nations. It persistently gives out the statement that Hays says his party is not opposed to the league. What Hays says is that "the league of nations, being an American question, cannot be a partisan question." The question that concerns the United States right now is one of economic and efficient administration—something that the democratic party has proven itself entirely incapable of administering.

SUNSET

Most of the farmers will finish harvesting this week. Ernest Kern has returned from overseas. He was in the hospital work. This is the last one of our boys to get home. We never lost any and only one slightly wounded of which we are justly proud.

Mr. and Mrs. Bolling and son are visiting Mrs. Bolling's daughter, Mrs. Chas. Hennebach. Annie Amick has returned home after spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. E. C. Hoover.

While bathing in the Kiowa July 4th Adelle Landford became seriously ill and has been under the care of Dr. Markley since but is improving at this writing.

Wade Lindsay gave a dance in his new barn July 4th. Mr. Mills furnished the music.

Mary Chappe has returned home from Roy Lash's.

Bert Daily's baby is very sick. Earl the seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Miller, was taken seriously ill of appendicitis Thursday. He was taken to the hospital but only lived a few hours after the operation. Interment was made in the Cateby cemetery. We extend to the bereaved parents and sister our heartfelt sympathy.

"Rocky" Ford is thrashing for Bert Darius.

Mrs. Mahaffey returned to her home in Olathe, Kansas, after a two weeks visit with her sister, Mrs. A. H. Kellogg here.

NORTH FORK

Ed Gaunt had a very sick horse yesterday. The veterinarian was called to see it last night.

There was a large turnout to the school meeting Tuesday as there were two members of the school board to elect. Lloyd Gensman was elected as clerk and Louis McNulty as director. Voters decided on seven months school and will pay a teacher living wages, so here's hoping for a good school this winter.

Mrs. Arthur Williams received the news last week that her father, M. Daily had his foot amputated at Research Hospital in Kansas City. Mr. Old friends of Mr. Daily will remember he had his foot crushed in a railroad accident 21 years ago. The injured member has troubled him ever since more or less and finally reached the stage that an operation was the only thing that could save his life. He stood the operation fine and is well on the road to recovery.

Will Shepard has been on the sick list the past week.

Don Davis has arrived home from France and is helping his brother Zale with his thrashing.

Newt Harrison is home after a two weeks' absence harvesting his wheat on the Kiowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Gwant and son Emory and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Henson and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Dickerson and son, Dewey Hubbard and wife all were day guests at the Arthur Williams home. George Hennigh and daughter, Emma, Mrs. Chrona Daily, Perry Jenkins, Ralph Christnut and sister Edith spent the afternoon there. Miss Florence Cobles and a Mr. Ross from Illinois were married a few days back and left immediately afterwards. Mr. Ross will work in the harvest east of Fayetteville while before going to his home in Illinois so we understand.

For a Billions Attack

If you have billions attacks give Chamberlain's Tablets a trial! They are excellent. Willis Browning, Pattonsburg, Mo., has this to say of them: "About a year ago my wife used a bottle of Chamberlain's Tablets and they cured her of a bad billions attack also of constipation from which she had been suffering for years."

The little freight bill of $151.00 presented to the state by Prof. S. M. Barrett, head of the new military academy for moving his household goods from Oklahoma City to Claremore has been paid, so we understand, by Auditor Carter. Are we to understand that from this time forth college men in the employ of the state are to have the moving expenses paid? All who like to pay taxes for this purpose, say "aye."

That "super-row" in the republican party over the national committee ship which the machine democrats have been predicting, doesn't appear to be materializing. For some reason the republicans refuse to get excited about this job.

Alvin York, accredited greatest performer with a rifle in the American army in France, has not been claimed as yet by the democrats. Wonder how they came to overlook it?

While it's good politics for the democrats to be so actively interested in muddying republican waters in Oklahoma, it's also good politics for the republicans to pay no attention to them.

IN MEMORY

Of Floyd N. Gorton, only son of Mr. and Mrs. L. I. Gorton. Floyd was born August 21, 1895, at Magnolia, H. county, Iowa, and came to H. county, Oklahoma, with his parents March 28, 1904.

He left Beaver October 4, 1917, for Camp Travis, Texas, for service with the National army and was assigned to Co. H, 112th Inf.

He was killed July 25, 1918, in the Second Battle of the Marne, by shell fire, near Ephraim, France. He was 22 years, 11 months and 4 days old when killed. The body will be returned to the parents when it will be placed in the National cemetery, at Fayetteville, Arkansas. Floyd was the first boy from Beaver county to be killed in action. —Contributed.
